

RUSSIAN FLEET IS BOTTLED UP

Says Lose Old Battleship in Battle with Germans in Baltic off Oesel Island.

NEW GERMAN MUTINY

Sailors Refuse To Board U-Boats
—Germans and Austrians in Bitter Battle.

Apparently contingents of the Russian fleet—in all about twenty warships of various classes—are bottled up in Moon sound with a cordon of German war craft barring their egress northward back into the Gulf of Finland or to the south into the Gulf of Riga.

Brave, but outclassed by reason of superior gun range and heavier tonnage the Russians gave battle to the Germans and attempted to force back the enemy armada off Oesel Island.
The guns of the German dreadnaughts sank the battleship Slava, a Russian ship of the days before the Russian-Japanese war, and so badly damaged other units that the Russian fleet was forced to seek refuge in Moon sound—lying between Moon Island and the Estonian coast.

Immediately seeking their advantage the Germans, according to the latest German official communication, again intensive operations against Moon Island, hammering its eastern shore battery until they were silenced and also attacking the Russian gun-boats in the mainland, putting them out of action. Moon Island was captured and the Russians took refuge inside Moon sound.

Germans Complete Blockade

The coup de grace the Germans threw was to the eastern part of Kasarov, lying to the north of Moon sound, bringing exit from the northern entrance to Moon sound and also rushed outposts to the south of Moon Island, apparently closing the passage to the south into the Gulf of Riga.
Already the Germans have attempted to attack from the north into Moon sound but the Russian guns have held them back successfully. Among the German warships attacking the old vessels of the Russian fleet were at least two dreadnaughts of the Gross-Kurfuerst type—vessels displacing 10,000 tons as against 15,000 for the slava. A majority of the crew of the slava was saved by Russian torpedo boats when the vessel took its final dive.

New Mutinies by German Sailors

With this advantage of the German naval forces over the Russians, however, comes news of fresh disaffection in the German fleet and also of a mutiny in the Austrian fleet in the Adriatic, and of bitter feeling between German and Austrian sailors at Ostend and German sailors at Ostend are reported to have declined to go aboard submarines for duty and to have overboarded one of their officers.
The Adriatic Austrian seamen are mutinied owing to ill treatment by their officers and the bad food served to them.
The bitterness of feeling between Germans and Austrians at Pola, Austria's naval base in the Adriatic, erupted in a fight in which men on both sides were killed. The trouble is due to the overbearing conduct of the German seamen who were attached to the submarine flotilla, and was necessary as a result of the ad hoc to change the German base in the Adriatic to a point farther outh.

French Repulse Teuton Attacks.

On land there have been no battles of noteworthy importance. In Belgium, the British and French guns are still hammering the German positions in front of them, but there has been no indication either officially or officially of any renewed infantry tack.

French troops on the southern por-on of the line have repulsed somewhat strong attacks in the Verdun sector near Bezonvaux, and also along the Aisne front in Vaucelles plateau.
On the other fronts only reconnoit-ring engagements and bombardments are in progress.

Intensive air fighting took place Wednesday between the French and the Germans. Eleven German airplanes were driven down by French fighters, making a total of 36 destruyed up to that time this week. The German war office asserts that 13
French machines were sent to earth.
Numerous air raids also have been carried out by French aviators against German positions behind the lines.
The Nancy again has been bombed
by the Germans.

CONVICT DRAFT OBJECTORS.

New York, Oct. 18.—Louis C. Franco and Ralph E. Scheney, members of a conscientious objectors society, were today convicted on a charge of conspiring to induce others to evade and obstruct the selective draft. They are able to imprisonment for two years with fines of $10,000.

Scheney is a son of Prof. Edward Scheney of the University of Pennsylvania. Franco is a Russian. They were arrested by federal authorities last meeting here September 27, where they charged Scheney acted as chairman and Franco made an address which contained alleged seditious utterances. They will be sentenced Monday.

TEST DRAFTED MEN TO LEARN ABILITY

PSYCHOLOGISTS EXPERIMENT
AT FOUR CAMPS

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18.—Psychological examinations of National army men have two purposes, one military and one medical. It was explained today by W. B. Bingham of the Carnegie Institute of Technology, one of the seven psychologists who worked out the methods now being applied at four of the cantonments.
The military purpose, he said, is to furnish commanding officers with a rating of each man in his command by which he may be guided in selecting men for promotion or for special duties requiring more than average intelligence. The medical purpose is to determine the mental soundness of the men and to find what men are so far below the average in intelligence as to be unfit for military service or for assignment to work as laborers or to other simple manual work under careful supervision.

The first test is a literacy one and shows only which of the men can read and write. The illiterates are withdrawn to be given examinations for manual skill. All those who can read are given various tests to determine their mental quickness. Those who do not get good ratings on these tests are re-examined in a group to discover whether they are merely slow or are of a slow grade of intelligence.
Any who do not then make a satisfactory mark are grouped with the illiterates with whom they are examined for manual skill and ingenuity such as putting together disassembled mechanisms. After further individual examination those who receive the lowest ratings are likely to be considered for discharge or suited only for manual work under supervision.

"The aims of the entire psychological examination," Prof. Bingham said,
"are to measure native intelligence and ability, not schooling. To disclose what a man can do with his head and hands and what he can learn, enabling the medical officers to sift out the extremely incompetent and thus prevent the inefficiency and injustice resulting from putting men in places which they are not qualified to fill."

The examinations are being conducted at Camps Devens, Div. Lee, and Taylor.

MOVES TO STOP PLOT TO DEFEAT BIG LOAN

BANKS ASKED TO TELL OF ANY INTIMIDATIONS.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18.—Secretary McAdoo today issued a statement requesting bankers to report to him the names of any person attempting to intimidate them in connection with making subscriptions to the Liberty loan and promising that prosecutions to the full extent of the law would follow.

The secretary's statement was prompted by reports from various parts of the country that depositors have threatened banks with withdrawals if they subscribe to the loan. It follows:

"From several sections of the country bankers have reported to me that some of their customers have threatened to withdraw deposits if their banks subscribed to the Liberty loan.
Such attempts at intimidation are made by disloyal and traitorous persons and are serious offenses against the law, for which stern punishment should be inflicted.

"I earnestly request any bank, state or national, against which such threats have been made, to report immediately by telegram or letter to the secretary of the treasury, Washington, the names of the person or persons guilty of such disloyal and traitorous actions, and I shall see to it that they are dealt with to the limit of the law.

"I also request such banks to inform me immediately if any deposits are withdrawn because they subscribed to the loan, giving me the name or names of such persons who have withdrawn.
"No bank shall be punished for doing its patriotic duty by assisting the government to prosecute the war to a swift and victorious conclusion."

The secretary telegraphed the statement to the treasury department from Salt Lake City where he spoke today.

EXPECT TO SETTLE COAL STRIKE SOON

PRESIDENT WHITE CALLS IT MERELY SPORADIC

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18.—Both Fuel Administrator Garfield and President John P. White of the United Mine Workers expressed confidence today that the strike of coal miners in the central competitive field of Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Pennsylvania would be settled within a short time.

President White left tonight for his headquarters in Indianapolis, where he will continue his effort to induce the men to return to work. Despite reports indicating a spread of strike sentiment among the men, Mr. White was optimistic when he left Washington. At the fuel administration it was said that he viewed the strike movement as sporadic and believed that the trouble would be adjusted within a few days by an appeal to the patriotism of the men not to permit the nation's coal supply to be diminished.

Pending the outcome of negotiations between President White and the miners, Dr. Garfield would not say what move he contemplated under his threat to the miners yesterday to invoke whatever powers necessary to insure workings of the mines at full capacity. Should Mr. White's efforts fail, however, it is understood that the fuel administration is prepared to lay before President Wilson a drastic plan for making certain an adequate coal supply.

Ten Belgians Guilty of Shipping Germans Goods

New York, Oct. 18.—Ten Belgians pleaded guilty to charges of complicity in a conspiracy through which it is estimated Germany received $25,000 worth of contraband goods each week when they were arraigned in federal court here today. It is alleged the goods were carried to Holland on Belgian relief ships and clandestinely shipped by the Dutch across the border.
The arrests were made August 10.
The court was told by the federal prosecutor that they entered the pleas for fear, in case of acquittal, they would be deported to Belgian territory where they would be tried for treason. They will be sentenced later.

MAY HAVE MINING DIVISION.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18.—Organization of coal mining regiments from miners already in the national army for service in France, is under consideration by Secretary Baker. To ac-certain if such a section is acceptable in view of France's delicate labor problems, informal negotiations are being conducted between American government officials and members of the French high commission.

NO PARLEYING WITH VATICAN

London, England, Oct. 18.—Replying to questions in the house of commons today Lord Robert Cecil, minister of blockade, denied that negotiations for terms of peace had taken place with the Vatican or any of its agents or any other religious organization.

EVIL INFLUENCE AT WORK WITH SCHOOLS

SOME ONE ORGANIZING STRIKES OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

New York, Oct. 18.—Full investigation of what he termed the "strong sinister influence" back of the strike of school children of this city against the so-called Gary system will be made by the Board of Education, according to an announcement made tonight by President William G. Wilcox, after he had received reports of rioting during the day in which crowds of pupils stoned school buildings in Harlem and the Bronx. The Gary system has been made a political issue in the municipal campaign. It has been indorsed by Mayor Mitchell and is opposed by John F. Hyland, the democratic candidate.

"There seems unquestionably to be some sinister influence that gave the children some organization they could not of their own efforts form," Mr.
Wilcox said tonight.

Two of the ten boys arrested during the rioting today were fined and others were paroled in the custody of their parents for examination Monday.

The rioting pupils repeatedly gathered after being dispersed by police reserves and school officials declared they were urged on by persons who addressed them along the streets. Scores of mothers, hearing of the rioting, rushed to the schools, many of them joining the parades that trooped through the streets.

INDIA PLOT INCLUDED DR. COOK'S MURDER

BOEHMWASTO POSE AS EXPLORER AND FOMENT REVOLTS

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—Dr. Frederick
A. Cook, the Arctic explorer, and a crew of 15 sailors were among those marked with assassination by the leaders directing the alleged plot to foment a revolution in India to embarrass Great Britain during the war according to testimony given by Augustus Chatterji, a Hindu priest in Judge Landis' court at today's session of the trial of Gustav H. Jacobsen, wealthy Chicago real estate dealer and his three co-defendants charged with conspiracy.
Wholesale murder and the kidnapping of numerous persons was part of the program outlined the witness testified.

This part of the plot, Chatterji said, was revealed to him in Manila by George Paul Boehm, one of the defendants.

"Boehm said that he had planned to kill Capt. Cook and his crew who were to make an expedition into the vicinity of the Himalaya mountains," said the witness. Boehm was to assume the name of Capt. Cook and the other men in our party were to assume the names of the other sailors who were to be killed. I protested. It was Boehm's plans to go through India under the guise of an explorer and foment a revolt among the natives against Great Britain."

The witness came to this country in 1912 to study journalism, but later was induced to take part in the alleged plot by Gupta, one of the defendants. He told of meetings held in San Francisco in 1915 at which plans for the alleged plot were discussed, and of going to Manila with the alleged conspirators. The witness later was arrested with others and brought back to this country for trial.
In cross examination Chatterji admitted he had been imprisoned for six months in solitary confinement in India before he confessed and was brought here.

Capt. Thomas J. Tunney, acting captain of the New York police department, testified to an alleged confession made by Heramba Lal Gupta to him in New York March 10, 1917, and his testimony was corroborated by George C. Barnett, a New York detective sergeant.

"He told me that Captain von Papen, the military attaché of the German embassy in the United States, paid him between $15,000 and $16,000 in a suite of offices in lower Broadway," said Captain Tunney. "He said later he went to China and Japan and purchased fire arms and ammunition for use in the revolution in India.
Gupta told me that von Papen said I would buy additional fire arms and ammunition in the United States and ship it to the Orient by way of the South Seas. Gupta told me he returned to this country in June, 1916, after having been followed by detectives all over China and Japan. He said that while in Japan he was given protection on one occasion in the home of a high public official.
"He told me the headquarters of the conspiracy was in Berlin."

MILK DRIVERS TO STRIKE

Leaders Claim Not a Borden Wagon
Will Go Out In New York Today

New York, Oct. 18.—Decision to join the threatened city-wide strike of milk wagon drivers was reached at a meeting here today of 800 employees of the Borden Milk Co. Union leaders predicted that not a single wagon of the company would be operated tomorrow morning until the employers granted the demands of the men.
Those in charge of the proposed strike declared the action would be endorsed by 2,500 employees of the Borden company who were not at the meeting.

The drivers of a Brooklyn milk company went on strike yesterday. Union leaders have announced that the strike will be called at only one plant at a time so as not to paralyze the city's milk supply. The drivers are asking a wage of $25 a week with a 1 per cent commission on sales, one day off a month, and one week's vacation each year.

FAVOR MORE PAY TO RAILROADERS

Brotherhood Chairmen Vote Unanimously to Submit Question to 200,000 Men.

20 PER CENT INCREASE

W. G. Lee, Head of Trainmen, Says Men Are Entitled to Higher Wage to Live.

Ottawa, Ontario, Oct. 18.—Reprsentatives of 200,000 organized railroad workers in the northeastern part of the United States and eastern Canada decided here today to recommend to their unions "that the demand from their employers, give wage increases of not less than 20 per cent. The workers involved are trainmen, conductors, baggage men, brakemen and yardmen.

The vote in favor of the demand for increased pay was unanimous on the part of 104 chairmen of the brotherhood of railroad trainmen, and the order of railway conductors who have been in session here for three days. The question will be submitted to a referendum of the members of the brotherhoods and if their vote is affirmative negotiations with the railroad company will be begun. If the increases are granted they will mean the addition of millions of dollars to the annual pay rolls of about fifty companies which are involved.

W. G. Lee, president of the train-men's organization, in announcing the decision of the convention, said it had been determined that railroad workers holding positions of responsibility were entitled to better pay. He explained that workers in steel mills and kindred industries had been given increases of 42 per cent in wages in the past year while trainmen and conductors have not had more than 30 per cent in 13 years.

In 1913 he said the men were granted the eight-hour day but that in a majority of cases this meant little to them.

"In view of the bounding cost of living," Mr. Lee declared, "the men feel they are entitled to more money and they intend to press their demands for the 20 per cent increase."

No action was taken on the question of the payment of benefits to relatives of the members of the two brotherhoods who fall in the war, either in the service of the United States or Canada. It was decided to leave decisions to the annual convention of the two organizations. President Lee and acting president L. E.
Sheppard of the conductors said they would continue to authorize payments until the conventions are held.

ANTI-LOAN PLOT IS MERELY A BOOSTER

GREATEST SINGLE DAY IN BIG CAMPAIGN EXPERIENCED

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18.—The nation's answer to the abortive efforts of the pro-German campaign against the Liberty loan was the greatest single day's subscriptions since the campaign was started. Officials estimate that nearly $1,750,000,000 of the loan has been subscribed and heavy sales are reported in prospect for the closing days of the drive.

Secretary McAdoo's statement today
was as follows:

"Progress of the loan throughout the nation was announced in the following treasury statement:

"Official reports on subscriptions total $827,174,650 up to the close of business yesterday or about $127,000,- 000 more than was reported at the close of the previous day.

"Estimates based on the customarily daily increase of the official figures and unofficial reports from various parts of the country led to the belief tonight that between $1,500,000,000 and $1,- 750,000,000 had been subscribed."

New York, Oct. 18.—An increase of $45,000,000 in 24 hours in subscriptions to the Liberty loan in the New York federal reserve district brought the unofficial total tonight up to $545,- 000,000. Thirteen banks, trust and insurance companies and private business firms subscribed $77,000,000.

TO AVOID COAL SHORTAGE.

New York, Oct. 18.—Public hearings to obtain information on which to base efforts to avert a coal shortage in New York state will be held as soon as branches of the state coal administration are organized in all counties.
It was announced here tonight by A.
H. Wiggin, fuel administrator. Mr.
Wiggin opened office here today and organization of a bureau of complaints will be one of his first tasks. Complaints of consumers, dealers and carriers will be heard.

MAY REVOKE ALIEN PERMITS.

New York, Oct. 18.—Destruction by fire of more than $3,000,000 worth of food stuffs and property along the water front within the last few days, although not proved to be the work of German agents, may cause the revocation of permits issued to enemy aliens, allowing them access to barred zones. This was intimated today by federal authorities.

AMERICAN OFFICER WOUNDED IN THIGH

LIEUTENANT ATTACHED TO BRITISH; ISH; MAN DIES

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18. — First Lieut. A. Graham, medical officers' reserve corps, attached to the British forces, has been seriously wounded in the thigh by gun shot. General Pershing so advised the war department today without giving details. Lieut. Graham's next of kin is Mrs. William W. Graham, 153 Park avenue, Patterson, N. J.

If Lieut. Graham was shot while serving at the front as is assumed here he was the first American of the expeditionary forces to be wounded on the firing line. One American officer was killed and several enlisted men of the medical department wounded in the recent bombing of a hospital behind the front. They also were attached to the British forces.

General Pershing also advised the department today that Private Joseph Zienkowski, of the infantry, died October 15 from natural causes. His next of kin was Mrs. Mary Zienkowski, Manistee, Mich.

WILSON HOPES SUFFRAGE WINS

Writes Mrs. Catt He Hopes Pickets Have Not Had Adverse Effect.

New York, Oct. 18. — President Wilson, in a letter to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Woman Suffrage association, made public here last night, expressed the hope that the voters would not be influenced by actions of the so-called pickets in Washington. The letter, dated Oct. 13, follows:

"My dear Mrs. Catt: May I not express to you my very deep interest in the campaign in New York for the adoption of woman suffrage, and may I not say that I hope no voter will be influenced in his decision with regard to this great matter by anything the so-called pickets may have done here in Washington. However justly they may have laid themselves open to the serious criticism, their action represents, I am sure, so small a fraction of the women of the country who are aiding the adoption of woman suffrage that it would be most unfair and argue a narrow view to allow their action to prejudice the cause itself. I am very anxious to see the great state of New York set a great example in this matter.

"Cordially and sincerely yours,
"Woodrow Wilson."

SMASH TWO RACING RECORDS

Hourless Beats Omar Khayyam in 2:02; Miss Bertha Dillon Steps 2:03 3/4.

Laurel, Md., Oct. 18.—In a sensational finish today, August Belmont's Hourless defeated Vian's Omar Khayyam in the match race between these three-year-olds. The Belmont horse broke the world record for a circular track by stepping the mile in 2:02. The former mark was 2:03 4/5.

The owner received a purse of $10,000 and a gold trophy offered by Edward B. McLean of Washington.

Belmont, however, won only glory. He will pay $10,000 in Liberty bonds and present them to the American Red cross.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 18.—Miss Bertha Dillon broke the world's trotting record for three-year-olds at Lakewood track here today, when she won the second heat of Matathon stake in 2:03 3/4. This was a quarter of a second faster than the previous record trotted by Peter Volo at Lexington in 1914.

BALLPLAYERS IN NAVY.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 18.—Manager Jack Barry of the Boston American baseball team and four of his players who enlisted as yeomen in the naval reserve were today called for active service and ordered to report for duty November 3. All are rated as first class yeomen.

Manager Barry and "Chick" Shorten have been assigned to the enrolling office here. McNally and Ernie Shore are assigned to the first district paymaster's office. Duffy Lewis has not yet received his assignment, but it is believed he will be sent to the Mare Island navy yard.

VETERAN'S FAMILY EAGER FOR BONDS

A Civil War veteran dropped in on an upstate Liberty Loan Committee at the head of a delegation of 13 grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and helped them fill out 13 separate applications for the second issue of Liberty Bonds.

"They are all too young to fight, and I am too old," he said, "but our money ought to help some." Two of the oldest youngsters, a boy of 15 and a girl of 13, had earned the money with which they made the first payments on their bonds by picking berries last summer.

Don't worry when your feet smart and burn and ache and feel sore all day long. You can easily get rid of the agony and distress by drawing out the inflammation with Peterson's Ointment.

Note: By sore feet Peterson means inflamed, smarting, burning, aching, weary feet, and not corns, bunions or callouses.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The New York Markets

New York, Oct. 18.—Stocks moved forward in a convincing fashion today, despite the further weakness shown by isolated issues, notably coppers. Much of the activity centered around the war group, particularly steels, at extreme gains of 2 to 7 points.

The advance was materially aided not only by extensive short covering, but also by heavy buying from commission houses. There were vague rumors of early developments at Washington, which are expected to rebound to the advantage of several of the munition companies now fulfilling large contracts for the home government and its allies.

Rails shared in the rise, though less substantially than industrials and equipments. Low grade or reorganized transportation issues were more prominent than usual.

U. S. steel did not get into the general stride until the latter part of the session when it rose to 105 and closed at 104 1/2, a net gain of 2 1/2 points. Bethlehem steels were next in favor. U. S. bonds (old issues) were unchanged on call, coupon 2 1/2 losing 1 per cent on one sale.

Superintendent's Office Wins from Engineering Department Wednesday.

Wednesday night the Superintendent's office defeated the Engineering department the first two games, but thinking it would not look good to be whitewashed, the Engineering department team came back with a little more ginger and captured the last game. Bevo
A BEVERAGE

Look for this Fox on each crown top

Watch!!!

For some years, various and sundry concerns have been making beverages which are grouped under the general description of "near-beer."

Then came Bevo—a cereal beverage, not a "near-beer," but offered purely for what it is—a delightful, wholesome and nutritious drink. Bevo met with instant and complete success. A whirlwind success.

Owing to Bevo's popularity, some beverages are now being offered in a way to make the appearance of the package look as much like the Bevo bottle as possible. The intention is obvious. But you don't taste the shape of a bottle—it's the flavor of the contents of the bottle that you must depend upon for enjoyment.

Then beware of impersonators—don't be satisfied to try to identify Bevo by the shape of the bottle alone—

Look!!

There are these certain identification marks that are your protection against imitations. Not just imitations of the product, remember—but those more insinuating imitations which try to deceive you by putting an old failure into a bottle similar to a new success. So look for these unmistakable marks of the genuine Bevo—demand that the bottle be opened in front of you, then—

Look for the Seal

See that it is unbroken covering the Crown Top
Look at the Crown Top, and see that it bears the Fox
Be sure the Bottle bears this Label

Listen!

Bevo is a pure drink. This means more than that it contains pure ingredients—it means that though you might often well be afraid of possible germs in milk or water, Bevo, being a pasteurized product in sterilized bottles, is absolutely free from bacteria.

Bevo is a nutritive beverage—the fine cereals from which it is made give it this quality.

Bevo is a delightful and refreshing soft drink—unlike any you have ever tasted—indeed a Triumph in Soft Drinks.

You can't get these good qualities in anything but Bevo—demand the genuine.

You will find Bevo at inns, cafeterias, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, soda fountains, dining cars, steamships, canteens, soldiers' homes, navy, and other places where refreshing beverages are sold. Your grocer will supply you by the case. Bevo is sold in bottles only—and is bottled exclusively by

GIRLS! MAKE A BEAUTY LOTION WITH LEMONS

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is truly marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

WHO SHOULD SUBSCRIBE

Who should subscribe for the Liberty loan? Why everybody who has or in the next year can save even the cost of the smallest of them should subscribe.

It is the duty of the manufacturer whose business has thrived under American policies, to get under the bond issue and give it an effectual boost.

It is the duty of the banker and financier, who never could have thrived elsewhere as in America, and whose fortune even now is the envy of the world, and in particular of the German government, which through indemnities hopes to get its covetous hands upon it, to subscribe at once for the Liberty loan.

It is the duty of the farmer, who along with all the rest of the people of the United States has enjoyed the material, educational and intellectual advantages which free America gives to its children, to buy—and to buy with everybody else, until it hurts.

It is the duty of the merchant, who has had no small share in the general prosperity, to lift, and to keep on lifting until the whole issue has been raised.

It is the duty of the teacher, whose educational advantages have brought him or her into close touch with world affairs, to buy a bond which is really an insurance policy for personal protection.

It is the duty of the laboring man who lives in a country which has afforded him advantages which no other affords, to buy as he is able in this great emergency.

It is the duty of the mechanic to whom America has given and is giving greater opportunities, higher pay and better living than he could get anywhere else in the world, to show his patriotism by buying a bond.

It is the duty of railroad employees, of whom there are hundreds of thousands in the United States, to join with men of all other occupations in making the general subscription both impressive and overwhelming.

It does not matter what one's occupation may be, what one's race or color, what the sex, whether young or old, whether rich or moderately circumstanced, the one outstanding duty of the hour is to buy a bond.

Buy a bond, therefore. Buy as large a one as possible and as many as you can; and be sure of one thing—that in buying these bonds, the purchase of which is not a charity but a safe and sane investment, no one has done his full duty unless he buys until the buying pinches.

WAR-CAMP RECREATION WORK

At the suggestion of President Wilson the directors of the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce have been called on to get their organization behind the campaign to raise a national fund for War Camp Community Recreation work. The purpose of this is to inspire the men, increase the efficiency and help develop the fighting spirit of the American armed forces. Features of this big work include the providing of wholesome, healthy environment in the communities surrounding the ninety or more training camps and posts.

John N. Willys, of Toledo, automobile and aeroplane manufacturer, appointed jointly by Secretary of War Baker and Secretary of the Navy Daniels as chairman of the national committee on the War Camp Community Recreation Fund, has written a letter to each of the following, asking their assistance in this vitally important war work: Hon. C. Smith, C. E. Westervelt, Geo. B. Baird, C. J. Beams, F. H. Breece, A. E. Ceperley, W. F. Eggleston, E. W. Elmore.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

The Awkward Squad

The sergeant looked at the three-cornered, flat-footed squad and said: "Stand at ease, men—stand at ease, I'll tell you a story."

"Years ago my dear old mother—God bless her—gave me a box of wooden soldiers and I loved 'em! I pushed 'em here and I stood 'em there, and I loved 'em! And when we moved house and that box got left behind, I thought I'd cry my young heart out—for I did love 'em."

The Figures in Iowa

The first reports as to Iowa going dry appear not to be borne out by the figures subsequently reported. The 30,000 affirmative majority published Tuesday morning changed during the day to a narrow negative margin. It seems to be very close and the probability is that the difference when finally determined will be reckoned in the hundreds with the likelihood that the amendment has been defeated. There is now local option in Iowa and the communities whose majority favors it can be bone dry if they will.—[Utica Press.

Wasting Gasoline in Joy-Riding

England has adopted drastic measures to prevent the waste of gasoline in joy-riding. By a Government order taking effect Nov. 1, importing for pleasure is forbidden under penalty.

Will it come to that in this country? American automobile-owners have twice been officially warned that the oil reserve is decreasing, and they have been earnestly urged to help conserve the supply of gasoline for war uses by individual economies in their consumption of it in unnecessary motoring. Is there the slightest evidence that they are heeding the warning? Are any autoists curtailing pleasure-riding for patriotic reasons and to save gasoline for military uses? — [New York World.

NEXT WEEK IS POTATO WEEK.

College of Agriculture Offers Seven Fine Ways of Cooking the Tubers.

The New York State College of Agriculture joins the federal department of agriculture in advocating a potato week from October 22 to October 27, inclusive. At that time potatoes ought to furnish a cheap form of starchy food, according to the college, and their use will largely save wheat. Further, if the householder tries various new ways of cooking them many families may learn that they are good as a steady diet; if there is a respite from the time-worn, but time-tried, baked or boiled potato.

The federal department has given, through the press, recipes for seven ways of cooking the tubers—one dish for each day in the week; the college offers seven additional recipes as follows:

Some Recipes.

Riced potatoes (Sunday) Force cooked potatoes through a ricer or coarse strainer into a hot vegetable dish. Avoid rehandling in order to keep the potatoes light and attractive in appearance. Riced potatoes are particularly appropriate with roasted chicken or meat served with gravy.

Potato cones (Monday) Mold lightly into cones riced potatoes left from Sunday dinner. Brush them with butter or roll them in grated cheese, and brown them in a moderate oven. These cones make an attractive garnish for a platter of creamed meat left from Sunday dinner.

Delmonico potatoes (Tuesday) Cut cooked potatoes in dice. Place them in layers in a buttered baking dish, alternating them with layers of thin, white sauce and shaved cheese. Allow about one-half as much white sauce and one-fourth as much cheese as potatoes. Sprinkle buttered crumbs over the top and bake the dish in a moderate oven until the top is well browned. This makes a good meat-substitute dish for supper.

Franconia potatoes (Wednesday) Parboil potatoes for 10 minutes. Remove the skins and place the potatoes on a roasting rack with meat. Bake them for about 40 minutes, or until the potatoes are tender, basting them occasionally with the juice in the pan.

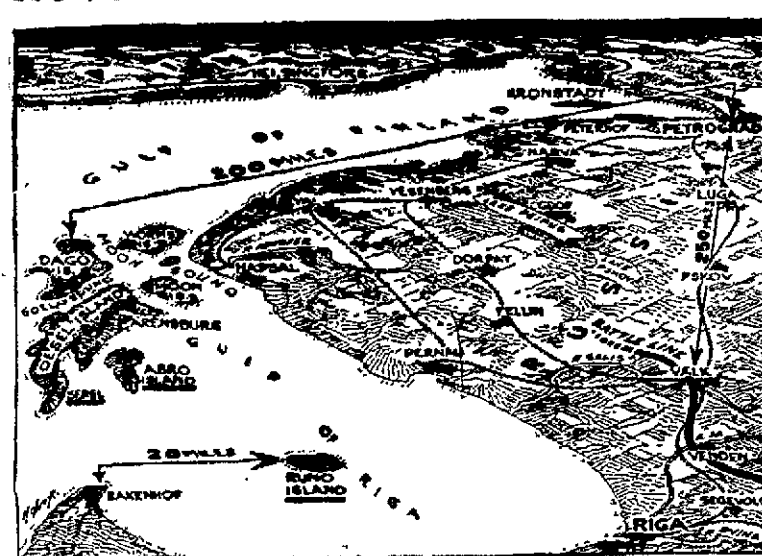

Smothered potatoes (Thursday) Brown two tablespoons of chopped onion in a small amount of fat in a frying pan. Add raw potatoes cut in thin slices, about a half cup of boiling water, and seasoning. Cover the pan and allow the potatoes to cook slowly on top of the stove or in the oven until they are tender. Uncover them and if necessary cook them quickly for a few minutes to dry off any surplus moisture before serving them. A little milk or cream may be added last, if desired. These potatoes are excellent with eggs, poached, scrambled, or baked.

With Fish or Meat.

Potato and fish pie (Friday)—Make a plain white sauce, using 2 tablespoons fat, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, salt, paprika, and 2 tablespoons minced sweet pepper. Add 1 cup of cooked fish. Line a greased baking dish with mashed potato an inch or more in thickness. Pour the creamed fish into the center, and cover the top with mashed potato. Brush the top with fat and brown the pie in a moderate oven.

Potato stuffing for mock duck (Saturday)—Two cups mashed potato, 1 egg (beaten), 1 small onion finely minced, 1 tablespoon butter 1 stalk celery finely minced or 1/2 teaspoon celery salt, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper. Mix the ingredients and spread the stuffing over ground beef cut from the lower part of the round and flattened into an oblong shape. Fold it together, turn it into a baking dish, brush the top with fat, and bake it for from 40 to 50 minutes.

RUSSIANS LOSE MORE ISLANDS

Runo Island, at the entrance of the Gulf of Riga, twenty miles from the coast, and Abro Island have been occupied by the Germans. The Russians in the peninsula of Svorb, in which is the town of Serel, are making a desperate resistance to the German advance. In an engagement in Sosa Sound between Russian and German warships, one Russian destroyer and two German torpedo boats were sunk, while two German torpedo boats were damaged. The Germans took 2,400 prisoners on Oesel Island.

Freedom for Women

Editor of The Star:
My grandfather fought in the Revolution, for the freedom of the white men of America, and my father fought in the War of 1812 for freedom of Americans on the high seas, and I in the Rebellion to free the colored race. And now it is about time to give the white women their freedom. Man and woman are partners in the drama of life, and there is no good reason why man should keep woman from voting. They have to live under the same laws, that woman, has no chance to make. The anti's, it is true, have two very strong elements in their favor, whiskey and moss backs. A moss back is a man that thinks what was good enough for his grandfather is good enough for him. In other words, he is an unprogressive. Woman's love for her children is stronger and more lasting than man. Man might be compared to the blue bird, and woman to the robin. The blue bird as soon as its young can fly, will drive them away, and if they come back, the old birds will drive them away again. While the robin will care for its young and feed them until they are as large as the old bird. I know that man has great love for his children, but never thought it equal to woman's. Woman is the architect and the builder of man. And here is one of the many good reasons why woman should vote—to help make laws to govern her children, that she had given the best of her life to bring to manhood and womanhood.

ONEONTA D. A. R. MEET.

Delegates to Annual State Conference Chosen.

The regular monthly meeting of the Oneonta chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. S. R. Barnes, 45 Elm street, the hostesses being Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Donald Strong and Mrs. John S. Lauren.

Light refreshments were served preceding the business meeting. Delegates were appointed to represent the chapter at the annual state conference, to be held in Troy November 3 and 4. The committee appointed to arrange the program for the year has taken for the topic "Some Highways of the United States." Mrs. E. D. VanCleft gave the first article of the series, her subject being The Boston Post Road, Washington Road, Braddock Road, Cumberland Road, and Boone's Lick Road.

At the conclusion of this interesting paper, Mrs. A. H. Brownell gave a short description of the formal reopening of the Philip Schuyler mansion in Albany last Tuesday.

Delayed Star Deliveries

So many complaints are being received from readers of The Star because of failure to receive the paper or delay in the receipt of the same when sent through the United States mail that the suggestion seems timely that in addition to notifying this office of all such failures or delayed deliveries that they be reported immediately to the post office department, Washington, D. C. We have not the least control over the papers after they are delivered to the post office for transmission through the mails. The fact is that a policy of strict retrenchment seems to prevail in the postal service, railway mail clerks being unable to put in overtime and rarely can secure extra help so that often papers are carried back and forth over the railroads in the mail cars from one terminal to another. It is a disgraceful feature of the service to which we have so often pointed with pride. The Star is bending every effort to see that no failure results from failure in the office of publication.

Alleged Worthless Check.

Officer Brown arrested Fred G. Mayham of Stamford yesterday on a warrant issued by City Judge Shove, charging him with having passed a worthless check upon Ronan Bros. of this city on or about July 30, last, securing $150 worth of goods and $5.50 in money for a check for $10, drawn on the Grand Gorge bank. Mayham deposited $20 cash as security for his appearance in city court on October 25 at 2 p. m. to answer to the charge.

REGISTRATION.

Saturday Last Day in Township—Today and Tomorrow Last in City.

The attention of voters in the counties of Otsego and Delaware is called to the fact that Saturday of this week—outside of the city of Oneonta—is the second and last day of registration. In the city of Oneonta Friday is the third and Saturday is the fourth and last day of registration.

In the townships, voters who have not changed their election districts, or who are personally known to the inspectors are supposed to have their names placed upon the rolls without personal appearance before the board. But if a voter has moved since last election he should not neglect finding out for himself as to whether his name is on the list. Otherwise he may lose the right to vote.

In the city of Oneonta personal registration is required. No names go upon the register save upon the actual personal application of the voter himself, appearing at the place of registration.

Today (Friday) is the third day of registration in the city. Saturday is the last day. If you have not already registered in person it would be well to do so at once. The hours of registration are from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Every year many voters move from outside districts to the city, and often they fail to make personal registration.

The complete list of polling places in the city of Oneonta appears in another column.

Don't Gamble On Quality This Season

If there ever was a time when a man should make every dollar bring the maximum, that time is now.

But some people are apt to get the idea that buying cheaper goods will solve the problem. It is a fallacy that we want to warn you against before you learn it in the bitter school of experience.

In clothes it is a time to buy better clothes—to pay a little more and get quality—to get long-wearing fabrics and superior workmanship.

Though wool is scarce

LOCAL MENTION.

—The Riverside Manufacturing company has placed a new Victrola at the disposal of its employees.

—Home Guards of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold a bazaar at Hurd's Boot shop Saturday afternoon of this week.

—The Salvation Army has leased the rooms at 35 Broad street occupied for the past year by the Rescue mission, and has taken possession. The Army has for some time been located at 13 South Main street.

—The Star is still receiving contributions to Our Boys in France Tobacco fund. If you have bought a Liberty Bond and can still spare a quarter or more for the cheer of the soldiers, it is solicited.

—Saturday evening will be Boy Scout night at the Oneonta theatre and on that occasion the medal for selling the largest number of bonds of the first Liberty Loan issue will be presented. Further announcement in relation thereto will be made in Saturday's issue.

—The class in Elementary Hygiene and Home Care of the Sick will hold a preliminary meeting for organization at the nurses' home this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Caddy desires all those intending to take this course to be present. The text books will be given out at this time.

—Owing to the press of duties elsewhere, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw was obliged to cancel her engagement to speak in Oneonta much to her regret as well as that of many admirers in the city. There will therefore be no suffrage rally at the Oneonta theatre this evening as announced. Manager Smith has been able to secure some good features for the afternoon and evening and it is hoped by the suffrage club that the theatre will be well patronized today.

—There is a shortage of sugar, especially granulated, which will probably not be relieved until the new crop has been refined and ready for distribution. There have been large shipments to our allies and the canning season has required large amounts. However, if housewives will buy only for present needs no serious famine will probably result. Attempts to stock up which many thoughtless ones try at such times only aggravate the trouble. Retailers are warranted in selling only in limited quantities.

Hearing on Mayor's Complaint

Mayor Ceperley has, after some correspondence, arranged with the Public Service commission to have the hearing in the matter of the complaint made by him against the Oneonta Light and Power company on account of their proposed service charge of 50 cents a month to all gas consumers, held in the council rooms at the Municipal building on Friday, Nov. 9, at 1:30 o'clock. Commissioner Irvine will conduct the hearing and City Attorney Becker will represent the complainant in the matter.

Merchants' Notice.

At the suggestion of the mayor and the chairman of the Liberty loan committee, a meeting of all members of the Merchants' association is called for 8:30 this morning at Municipal hall, for the purpose of discussing means of promoting the sale of bonds. This is an important question. Let every member be present. L. M. Baker, president, E. W. Spencer, secretary.

AROUSE PATRIOTIC FEVER

ELOQUENT SPEECHES STIR GATHERING OF D. & H. EMPLOYEES PROFOUNDLY

More Bonds and Less Blood the keynote of the meeting—Bonds Best Security Known to World of Finance—Money Liberally Contributed to Speed End of Giant Struggle.

In many respects what was the most remarkable meeting held in the city since war was declared was held last evening at Municipal hall, and while originally designed to acquaint the employees of the D. & H. company with perhaps a clearer understanding of why America is in the gigantic struggle and the importance of the success of the second Liberty loan it would have been profitable had every man, woman and child been able to be present and hear the intensely patriotic addresses and the clear and lucid explanations of the Liberty bonds and their merit and worth as securities of the highest sort. Slowly but surely with such addresses will America awake to the fact that our liberties are at stake and that if we fail to get in and to get in with all our might until Prussian militarism is crushed out we will yet feel the cruel heel upon our shores and suffer akin to the sufferings of blood stained Belgium.

Mayor Ceperley by request called the gathering to order and named Superintendent McNeill as chairman and that gentleman was chosen by acclamation. Mr. McNeill made brief remarks in which he referred to his former residence in Canada, but expressed a conviction that the line is largely imaginary, and that now as we are united as one in making the world free and safe for the smallest of the nations of the earth. He said that the D. & H. company has made earnest effort to so arrange its announcement as to make it easy for all employees to purchase one or more Liberty loan bonds and reported that in two days' time there has been subscribed by Oneonta employees, the handsome sum of $27,500. He called upon the gathering to arise and unite in singing America with a trio composed of Messrs. Wheeler, Coburn and Cronkite leading, which was done with a will. Following the trio sang, their powerful and well modulated voices pleasing all, a patriotic selection, "Our Country Needs You."

Hon. Charles Smith, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was the first speaker, and he took his cue from the song and asked effectively: "What are you going to do for your country?" Our task is to back up the boys at the front. We are not asked to give but to loan to our government to fight our war, giving as security the best bond known to the financial world. While it is using your money to fight your battles it will pay you four per cent interest and return your principal to you. We are asked to buy these bonds out of our savings and the government asks that we be less wasteful. We spend millions for chewing gum with which we could do without and save many millions, annually. By buying bonds we will learn to be thrifty and become more self-reliant and more useful to ourselves, our families and to society.

Rev. Father Charles McCaffrey, after some references to the wars of the past, said that the people at home who must furnish the sinews of war are virtually the first line of defence, the relief line if you please. We probably now have 300,000 men across the water and before many months are passed we will have 1,500,000 men there. It will require vast expenditures to properly equip and provide them. We must do this upon no niggardly scale for it would be a crime for us to leave our soldiers hampered for the need of anything that would save life and make their task easier. We remain steadfast, giving freely until the flag of democracy is safely planted where no hand will ever attempt to tear it down. The Liberty Loan bonds are the safest investment in the world—every dollar of property within its domain is behind it, guaranteeing both principal and interest. It would be suicidal to impair our financial institutions and the credit of the country to require the withdrawal of funds in commercial enterprises to pay the cost of the war. We would soon become bankrupt as a nation and be whipped. Our government would have us realize that we are at war and we must finance it out of savings and we will at the same time be changing our people from spenders to savers, winning the war, and making our people better citizens as well.

Secretary Westervelt of the Chamber of Commerce spoke briefly but pointedly, disclaiming ability to speak with the others, but having been drafted, desired to respond to the service. Quoting from another, he declared, "It's a condition, not a theory, that confronts us." We are called to the limit of our powers, though perhaps at home, to defend the flag and even if we cannot go across, we can come across. The question is, what does this war mean to you? If we admire the heroism of the men who respond we will not, if red blood courses in our veins fail to respond with all the means which we have. Were Germany actually invading our country we would not hesitate. She is, in fact, and the one request of our government is that we finance the war, offering us the best investment yet known.

In presenting John S. Tanney of the B. of L. E., Superintendent McNeill said that the success already attained has been largely due to the full-hearted response of the heads of the men's organizations and they are doing their part. Mr. Tanney spoke effectively, asserting that the more freely we give of money and the more promptly we assure the success of the Liberty Loan the fewer of our brave boys will have to be sacrificed and the sooner will the war end. Explaining the need of such large sums, he said, that by actual computation that for every man

CANVASS COMMENCES TODAY

Captains and Teams Named to Push Sale of Liberty Loan Bonds—City Divided into Districts and Work Begins at Once.

The committee appointed by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening, of which Mayor Ceperley is chairman, to co-operate with the Liberty Loan committee, of which Hon. L. P. Butts is chairman, met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms last night and outlined a definite working program.

Teams have been selected who will make a thorough canvass of the city of Oneonta and endeavor to bring this city's quota up to the allotment.

The following have been selected as captains: First ward, first district, Charles J. Beams; first ward, second district, Arthur Seybolt; second ward, second district, L. L. Gardner; second ward, first district, C. R. Morris; third ward, L. E. Wilder; fourth ward, F. A. Herlieth; fifth ward, F. N. Van Wile; sixth ward, C. F. Shelland; West End, I. J. Bookhout.

The captains will meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms this morning at 9:30 when their teams will be assigned and effective work launched.

It is hoped by earnest effort on the part of the men selected to perform this task that there will be no difficulty in closing up the solicitations in a brief period.

THE MOTOR AMBULANCE.

Organizations Are Responding and Subscriptions Are Solicited.

Responses to the appeals for the fund with which to purchase a motor ambulance of the latest type, a project recently launched by the railroad men's organizations, are encouraging and, the early success of the venture seems assured. The committee reports the following subscriptions received from organizations: Veteran, Firemen's association, $10. Maccabees $25, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks $50, Loyal Order of Moose, $25. Others have the matter in shape to present at early meetings and the support assured is gratifying.

The paper for voluntary subscriptions which has only recently been drawn up will be left at Citizens' National bank today, where any interested in the city having an up-to-date ambulance service may call and leave subscriptions.

The Best $15 Bracelet Watch You Can Buy

IT is the Hallmark Bracelet Watch—a small 15 jewel Swiss movement, in a 25-year gold filled case, cased and timed by expert American watchmakers. This watch is produced only for Hallmark Stores—the leading jewelers in nearly 600 American cities.

It is their watch; for they are the stockholders in the United Jewelers, Inc., whose trademark is Hallmark.

After careful, comparative tests of many watches, the committee representing Hallmark jewelers, found this watch to be the best possible watch for the price.

The Turning Point

Between economy and waste lies in your judgment of what constitutes real value. We advise you not to be too hasty to decide that a low price is a criterion of high value. It is often just the contrary. The prices we charge for clothing may not be as low as some, but they represent real values and are as low as possible for desirable qualities. If you pay less you won't get as good. That is absolutely certain.

DEATHS

Mrs. William Carrington

Leta Parish, wife of William Carrington, died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at the Fox Memorial hospital, where about a week before she underwent a difficult surgical operation. Her condition, at first critical, was somewhat more favorable on Tuesday and Wednesday, but on Thursday morning she became much worse, and death followed as above stated.

The funeral will be held on Sunday. There will be prayer service at the house at 1 o'clock, followed by the funeral at 2 o'clock at the Free Baptist church. Rev. Dr. Pendleton will officiate and interment will be beside her mother in the Parish family plot at Riverside.

The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith Parish and was born at North Franklin 29 years ago. She was married 12 years since to William Carrington, and ever since her home had been on South Side on what is known as the Gibson farm. She is survived by her husband, father, two brothers, Welcome Parish of Laurens and Henry Parish of Onondaga, and by two sisters, Mrs. Edward Carrington of West Meredith and Mrs. Asa Mumford of Otego.

Mrs. Carrington was from early life a devoted and consistent member of the Baptist church at North Franklin; and she was also a member of the Onondaga grange. She was a true Christian, a loving wife and daughter, a loyal friend and a good neighbor. All who knew her will long recall the sterling and lovable qualities of mind and heart which were her distinguishing characteristics, and will extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mary E. Jordan Berner

Mary Estella Jordan, wife of Samuel E. Berner, died at the Fox Memorial hospital yesterday after falling to rally from a difficult operation. Her illness has been of long standing.

Mrs. Berner was born at Middletown, July 21, 1877, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Jordan. In the spring of 1899 she married Samuel Berner, who survives her. Shortly after they moved to Schenectady where they resided for twelve years, going from there to Rotterdam, where they remained for three years before coming to Onondaga three years ago. Mrs. Berner was the mother of three children, Estella, Hazel and Lloyd, all of whom survive her. A sister, Mrs. C. J. Avery, lives at Bristol, Conn.

The funeral will be held from the late residence, 1 Normal avenue, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon with the Rev. B. M. Johns officiating. Interment will be at the Plains.

SIBLEY-DRAKE.

Millard Groom of 84 Takes Bride of 81 on Tuesday.

Lucia Sibley, 81, mother of P. O. Sibley of this village, and Chauncey N. Drake, 84, also a resident of Millard, were united in marriage at the home of the former on Grove street Tuesday evening of this week by the Rev. N. B. Kiple. The ceremony was performed in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Sibley.

Seldom is it the pleasure of any minister to perform a wedding ceremony when the contracting parties have come so near the century mark. Seldom is it a pleasure to unite two people more youthful in spirit than the bride and groom at yesterday. Seldom is a wedding performed at which the congratulations of friends could be more sincere than those which are coming in today to this octogenarian couple, who have chosen to share together the remaining quiet years in golden companionship.

In youth, as boy and girl, these two had attended the same school, and now after the lapse of many years they have united with those common ties which will make the days to come a joy to both. That is the wish of a host of friends, and the Tidings joins heartily with them in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Drake many more years of happiness.—(Millard Tidings.)

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Harriet Ives of Morris, who died in Binghamton, and whose body was brought Wednesday to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Johnson, in this city, were held at 10 o'clock yesterday at the Methodist Episcopal church parlors. The service was conducted by Rev. B. M. Johns, who after the reading of appropriate selections from scripture gave a brief discourse full of comfort to the bereaved family. APPETITE PLEASES HIS WIFE BECAUSE SHE'S A GOOD COOK

Elmira Man Tells Interesting Story of What New Tan-lac Did For Him.

"The hearty appetite I now enjoy, and which was given me by Tanlac, certainly pleases my wife, for she is a very good cook and likes to see me eat," declared H. M. Rogers of 105 Budd street, Elmira, as he related the story of how he got his appetite back and how he feels now.

"I suffered from stomach trouble all the past winter," Mr. Rogers began. "I was all the time feeling as if I had a very bad cold. I was continually bothered with gas and bloating. I used to be so nervous I could not sleep. I was going to bed, and made my breath short. It also seemed to affect my heart."

"My stomach was so sore I could hardly stand it. I kept doctoring and trying remedies, but seemed to get worse instead of better. I happened to read many of the endorsements from people I work with and concluded to take Tanlac."

"I didn't get any relief from the first bottle and thought that it was a fair trial again, but I decided to give it a fair trial and I was repaid, for I began to improve soon after taking the second bottle. I am on my fourth bottle now and feel fine. I have a very good appetite, which pleases my wife, and she is a very good cook."

"I never suffer after eating any more and all the gas and bloating have disappeared. I used to be so nervous I could not sit still, but now I am at ease and I feel fine."

"Tanlac is true," said Mrs. Rogers, who accompanied Mr. Rogers when he made this statement. "It has worked wonders for him and for me. I have never experienced so that others may be benefited by it."

Tanlac receives endorsements like this from well known men and women every day. These statements have made Tanlac the most popular medicine in the world. Tanlac, the new reconstructive tonic for young and old, is now being specially introduced at the drug stores of H. C. Scatchard and George S. Slade.

sent to the front there will be required at least 40 tons of munitions, food and supplies of all sorts. This amount seems almost incredible but is correct.

Dr. J. C. Russell followed with one of the most impassioned and eloquent efforts during his residence here. We are, he declared, at one of the greatest crises in the world's history and we must realize that we are up against one of the most colossal military demons the world has ever known and he is fighting now with demoniac ferocity, born of desperation, and we can do but one thing, that being to fight out the issue now whether it require six months or six years and until the right of democracies to exist on the earth despite the terrific power which war-crazed autocrats can exert is established beyond doubt. It is perhaps no wonder that we are to an extent apathetic. Rest assured, however, that Belgium is not apathetic—France is not apathetic—England is not apathetic—they know what war means. They know the liberties of the world are threatened by a giant military power.

Six months have elapsed we will know, too, and there will be no apathy here then. Despite their cunning plans to encompass our undoing while professing friendship, and their continued efforts in burning our grain and foodstuffs, and attempts to poison our men, we still do not realize fully the iniquity of their crimes, but from von Bernstorff down to the lowest consul, they should have been stood up against a wall and shot. There are others, native sons I am humiliated to say, who even now attempt to palmy our arms and freeze our blood. These should go down into disgrace unwept and unsung.

It is our war and we are in the fight. We need men like Paul Revere to sound a clarion call and awake America. Even now Prussian militarism is attempting to buy Russia off and to corrupt the press of France, hoping that she then will be able to conquer England and bring America down and make her pay a vast indemnity. We must get behind our boys and stay there until the end, be the cost what it may. Money will win the war and the more we put in now the cheaper will we reach the only goal at which we can stop. Liberty was entrusted to us by our forefathers and we must preserve it for posterity, otherwise we are traitors to those who founded the nation that is ours.

In closing he compared the giant of Prussian militarism to a monster locomotive which contending with a down-fall of little white crystals seems invulnerable, but slowly and surely they finally clog and stop the monster power. The small Liberty bond is the little snowflake which when assembled in mass will conquer the big, cruel monster and its power will be forever gone. It was a most effective closing of a truly powerful address.

S. H. Potter of the Wilbur National bank followed with some interesting facts about the bonds, explaining how they may be secured; commended the plan suggested by the D. & H. company to enable its employees to buy the bonds, and expressed a conviction that they are the safest and best investment one can secure. It is far easier to finance the war by buying bonds than by other methods which the government must adopt should the bond issue fail.

G. A. Johnson of the O. R. T. was the last speaker, who declared that our government is the embodiment of all that we hold dear and if its bonds ever prove worthless, then all else we have will be worthless also. At the close a vote of thanks was given the speakers and the city officials for the use of the hall, and with three cheers for the success of the Liberty loan the gathering ended—an impetus having been given the bond sale and patriotic fervor that will long be felt.

WILSON APPEALS FOR SUFFRAGE

President Writes Mrs. Catt Expressing Hope Pickets Will Not Influence Voters

New York, Oct. 18.—President Wilson, in a letter to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Woman Suffrage association, made public here expressed the hope that the voters would not be influenced by the actions of the so-called pickets in Washington. The letter, dated Oct. 13, follows:

My Dear Mrs. Catt—May I not express to you my very deep interest in the campaign in New York for the adoption of woman suffrage, and may I not say that I hope no voter will be influenced in his decision with regard to this great matter by anything the so-called pickets may have done here in Washington? However justly they may have laid themselves open to serious criticism, their action represents, I am sure, so small a fraction of the women of the country who are urging the adoption of woman suffrage that it would be most unfair and argue a narrow view to allow their actions to prejudice the cause itself. I am very anxious to see the great State of New York set a great example in this matter.

Cordially and sincerely yours,
(Signed) Woodrow Wilson.

HOW THE WAR GAME IS PLAYED

Mechanic Moore Writes to Parents in Oneonta of His Experiences at Chattanooga — Drills and Near-Fighting in Woods of Tennessee.

That George Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Moore of 7 Fifth street, this city, is having his full share of war experiences in Tennessee is evident from a letter which he wrote home recently. Mr. Moore, who evidently fully enjoys the war game, enlisted July 2, going to Fort Slocum. On August 20 he made 22 out of 25 at target practice and on Sept. 1 was made first-class private and on Sept. 10 was made mechanic. Star readers will be interested in the letter, from which it is permitted to make a few extracts. He says:

"We have been in the field for three days and two nights. We have hiked some, and then some more. They have commenced to tighten up on the drills now, as they are giving us what they call night maneuvering. They hike us in the day time and train us at night for trench fighting, finding our way through the woods in the dark, and breaking through the enemy's lines. They call it a war game, and it certainly is some game.

"We have had to do the same here as we are expected to do 'over there,' except, of course, actual gun fighting. The captain stepped out in front of the battalion before we commenced and told us that any man who failed to do his duty would be court-martialed just the same as if we were in France. Then he told us to go to it—and we went.

"The companies forming our battalion are E, F, G and H, and in our drill today, E and F were taken out and told to make their way through the guards and outposts of companies G and H, which were supposed to be the enemy. We were out in the woods, three miles from anywhere, and then they separated us into squads of eight men and told us to get back to camp anyway we could, but we must go through the enemy's lines or be captured. Well, Co. F got seven men through; Co. E got only two. I was lucky enough to be one of the seven, and I guess it was mostly luck. I thought the corporal was going in the wrong direction and I knew enough to find the north star. When I had located it I remembered that the camp must be pretty near south so I used my head a little and struck out for myself.

"The next four hours were the worst I have ever spent. I fell off a bridge into about six feet of mud and I followed that stream for what seemed to me to be at least a mile before I got out. But that was just what saved me. When I left the creek, I struck one of their outposts and laid down and crawled on my stomach through the mud until I was past. It is mighty hard work to crawl on your stomach and keep your rifle clean, believe me. When I got back to camp and reported to my top sergeant, he had a long, hearty laugh over me. My face was skinned and I was covered from head to foot with Georgia mud. Then I had to go to bed, wet clothes and all.

"Pretty soon the captain sent his orderly for all the men who got through to report to him. Each of us had to relate how we reached camp, and when he came to me he asked if I had been through a wreck, to which I replied: 'Sir, it was worse than that.' After we had gone to bed again, the captain told the company in the presence of the battalion to give every man who had got through a pass from then until Monday morning at reveille—and it was Friday noon then. I took a bath, changed my clothes, and got out of camp as soon as I could for the Chattanooga fair."

"We left camp last Tuesday and I haven't seen a bed since, except to look at it, and I wish taps would sound so the fellows would shut up and go to sleep. . . . We have not got our winter clothing yet, but think we will get them soon. What makes it so bad here is that the days are warm, but the nights are cold.

"If a few days after pay day the wad a soldier drew looks rather small, he should worry. Uncle Sam doesn't ask if his boys are broke. Generally he knows they are, and he generously advances a third of a month's pay in canteen checks. "George."

The local crop is sold out to an extent unusual for this time of the year, due to the high prices paid at the opening of the market.
